Consent form for personal customers of the Nykredit Group

The Nykredit Group consists of a number of companies, each providing different solutions for your personal finances.

We wish to offer you the best advice possible and the prices and terms that best suit your dealings with the Nykredit Group companies.

If you are or wish to become a customer of Nykredit Realkredit A/S, Nykredit Bank A/S, Totalkredit A/S or Nykredit Leasing A/S, you are kindly requested to sign this form, thereby giving these companies your consent to exchange customer relationship data between those of the companies of which you are or wish to become a customer.

This will allow us to offer you overall advice, terms and prices that reflect the volume of your dealings with the Nykredit Group.

We exchange customer relationship data for the purpose of assessing your application and offering you ongoing advice and for risk management and credit assessment purposes.

The customer relationship data we exchange include:

- facility data, eg products and size
- your salary, wealth and debt situation
- property valuation
- credit assessment
- budget information
- instances of default and arrears, if any.

Your consent to disclosure of data does not comprise strictly personal data.

You are entitled at all times to demand information about the type of data we may disclose with your consent and for which purpose and to whom such data may be disclosed based on your consent.

Consent is voluntary

Please note that your consent is voluntary. If you do not want to give your consent, we may not be able to offer you overall advice or terms that build on knowledge about the volume of your dealings with the Nykredit Group.

You have a right to regret

If you regret having given your consent, you may withdraw it at any time. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to offer you overall advice or terms that build on knowledge about the volume of your dealings with the Nykredit Group.
